

TIGARD FIRST CITIZEN AWARD

CRITERIA: Tigard's First Citizen has made in-depth, long-term volunteer contributions to the Tigard community over the years. The winner is active, involved, interested, and enthusiastic about making Tigard a nice place to live and work. This individual excels in any area of unpaid endeavor of education, social services, youth work, and community improvement of public services. This award is given in the spirit of all volunteers who remain unknown. The recipient joins the ranks of those previously honored in continually striving to improve the Tigard Area.

Any individual or organization can make a nomination. Nominations due by March 17, 2014 either by mail or by e-mail to the addresses below. If you need more room to describe the nominees achievements, please add no more than one additional page.
